This is North Reading
The place we call home
It may not seem like much
And to most others is unknown
It may not be fancy to the eye
And not much night life can be found
But to us our little town is the best one all around!

The Past

*It's sad to bid you goodbye
I'm sure we'll meet again
some day . . .*

*When the sun again shines bright
Amongst the budding trees
Someday . . .*

*When the children laugh
And play those childish games we all once played Someday . . .*

*Soon, we'll meet again . . .
Beautiful rosebud,
I long so for spring to arrive;
For in spring,
I have a friend in you . . .
Nancy Pecovich*

You want me to do what?

I know that key is here somewhere.

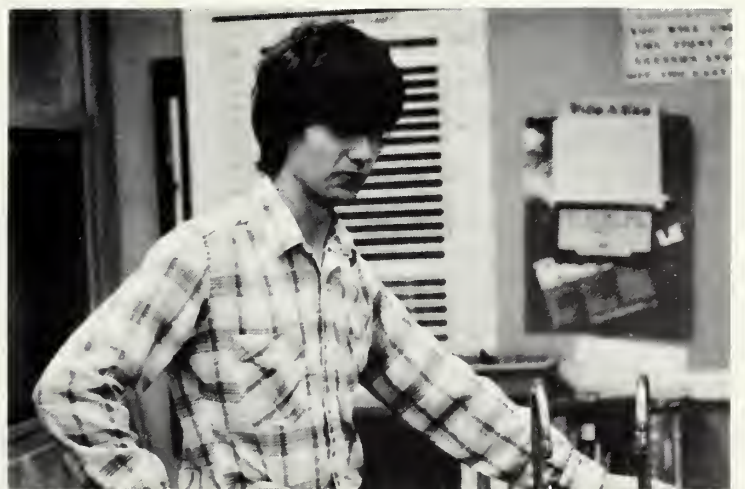

Now, where did that contact lens go?

Wanna buy a caterpillar . . . cheap?

If you come any closer with that I'll break your face!

Right . . . well, you take the ethnocentric velocity of the spewconforgity function . . .

I think my head is stuck.

Two typical NRHS students.

A rare photo . . . mouths at rest.

Don't laugh. I was born this way.

There's got to be an easier way.

The phantom hand attacks unsuspecting victim.

ARTHUR J. KENNEY

The class of 1981 would like to dedicate this yearbook to you, Mr. Kenney, in appreciation for our memorable years at North Reading High School

ARTHUR JOSEPH KENNEY, A. B.
21 Grant Street
Milford, Mass.

Milford High School                      Milford, Mass.
Sodality 1, 2, 3, 4; Freshman Baseball 1; Varsity Baseball 2, 3, 4; Intramural Sports 1, 2, 3, 4; Milford Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

"Art" Kenney                      sparkling mound ace                      a bulwark of our pitching staff                      a "lefty" with as many tricks as Houdini and the rhythm and form of a ballet dancer . . . On the mound, he is slow and deliberate . . . careful in his choice of "stuff" And off the mound "Art" is just as careful . . . in his choice of music                      choosing the best                      in his choice of plays travelling even to Boston and New York for the leading productions . . . in his hobbies . . . choosing the superior in art . . . especially landscapes, sunsets, and Currier and Ives lithographs . . . Equally careful is Art in his mural taste . . . and as Chairman of our League of Decency, he inspired others to that same care . . . Painstaking was he . . . as a progressive salesman Student . . . with a deep interest in Philosophy and Education could often be found in a spirited discussion on the various systems of Education . . . Gentleman . . . respected by all . . . his sterling qualities guarantee him . . . major league rating . . . regardless of the career that may be his . . .

Mr. Kenney is a graduate of Milford High School, Holy Cross and the University of New Hampshire. He was a member of Kappa Delta Pi.

While attending Milford High, he was Captain-Pitcher of Boston All Scholastic Team. Mr. Kenney earned his 3 letters in Varsity baseball at Holy Cross College. Beginning his professional baseball career, "Art" Kenney played with the Boston Braves. He was also a member of the Toronto Maple Leafs, the Hartford Braves, and the Evansville Braves III. Beginning "Art" Kenney's semi-pro ball career, he played for Littleton Collegians and the Harwich Cape League.

Mr. Kenney started out his career as a teacher of English, Latin, French, and rose to the position of principal. In 1964 he joined the staff at N.R.H.S. as principal.

We were lucky to have you as our principal. You showed us leadership, spirit, and friendship and at the same time upheld the respect we have for you. We hope you enjoy many years of happiness. Love,

Class of 1981

May I be granted the strength
To accept the things I cannot change
The courage to change the things I can
And the wisdom to know the difference.

and a poem:
About Being Dazzled
You were walking. The Black forced invisible needles into your body.
Sadness, loneliness, anger, fear, frustration, shame. Then, past the dark, shaggy arms of the pine trees, you saw the moon. It was brilliant. And you forgot your pain. And you were dazzled.
Be dazzled and remember: I love you.

IN MEMORIUM

Our class of 1981 feels great sorrow at the loss of our coach and close, personal friend, Mr. Lester Levey.

Mr. Levey became physical education director in our school when it opened in 1957, and served as athletic director for 17 years. He was president of the Massachusetts State Athletic Directors Association in 1974-75.

During Mr. Levey's 23 years at North Reading, he coached gymnastics, baseball, and girl's softball. He contributed a great deal of joy and understanding to these teams.

We strongly appreciate the love, concern, and dedication that Mr. Levey expressed to all of us during his years at North Reading High. He has guided us through 12 years of ups and downs, from gym class in elementary school to coaching us for the states. Mr. Levey will be fondly remembered and our memory of him will be everlasting.

VOLUME XXX No. 24

NORTH READING, MASSACHUSETTS, June 5, 2001

Saturday night the North Reading High School class of '81 held its 20th Reunion. All of the two hundred twelve attended with the exception of six people who made their apologies. Brain surgeon Simon Cowley had to perform surgery; professional dirt bike racer Scott Proctor had an important race; millionairess Dot Gillis was in Italy; Detective Barry Brooks was busy with an important case, and ship Captain Paul Anderson and first mate Carol Chabot were away at sea.

Many of the reunioners were still at NRHS: Art teacher Dot Grinley; Physical Education teacher Kathy Nelson; Cheerleader Coach Kathy Canavan; Rifle and Flag Coach Lynne Sacco, Math teacher and Yearbook Advisor Terri Atkinson; English teacher Marianne Leonard; Guidance Counselors Sharon Lord and Laurie Doucette; School Nurse Connie Palmitesta; Vice Principal Billy Gallant, and Principal Evan Doherty.

In addition, many local residents attended, such as, Tom Connolly, Paul and Lisa Ladd Surette, owners of North Reading Cinema, Hillview Country Club groundskeeper Ken Locke, Recreation Department Director Tom Dubois; Gigi Nephew, Mike Baglio, Bill MacDonald and Gerard Murphy owners of The Blackbelt School of Karate; Tree surgeon Jeff Branch; local MD. Dr. Michael Gallahue along with Nurse Diane Cofer; Ronnie Doucette owner of Ron's Gym and Fitness Center; Dale Enos and Kim Lumb: Dental Hygienists, Policeman Larry Mundy and Donna Oliver; WCOZ DJ Sue Angelini, and bank President Denise Gabrian.

A delicious dinner was provided by Anthony Scibilia (owner of Anthony's Pier 7); and Donna Germino and Susan Rubbico (owner of Kitty's Restaurant). The meal was even praised by Gourmet David Campbell.

After dinner entertainment was a live concert from a popular rock band with Paul Stevens, Mark Jurzack, and Roger Windt. A good show was also performed by Magician Paul Murphy aided by Assistant Patti Lastinger. A fashion show, with models Melinda Flanders, Pam Skeffington, Debbie Bugden, and Lori Brown was presented courtesy of Clothes Unlimited (owners Lisa Coleman, Suzanne DiFranza, and Nanette Bernier.

It was discovered that many of the Class of '81 had gone into business together such as Connor, Hillard, and Welch Co., Inc. And Mike, Brad, and Billy's business included Executive Secretary Diane Bellino, Meredith King, and MaryJo Alcorn; Public Relations Executive Linda Rose, and Accountant Michael Sullivan.

Also together were members of the Barnum & Bailey Circus: Clowns Barbara Holden & Tracy Jones, Figure Skater Dale Titus, Snake Charmer Joanne Cullen, Juggler Jerry Mollica, Lion Tamer Jim Carney, Trapeze Artists Cindy Doran & Sue Spousta, and Ring Leader Belinda Taylor.

From Columbia Pictures Company came Actress Lois Celata, Singer Sue LoChirco, Stage Manager Janet Sawler, Commercial Actress Linda Hobby, star of The Godfather V Michael Abruzese, Agents: Deb Goodwin and Anne Perkins, Stuntman Richard Clewer, Make-up Artists Susan McTague and Laura Voto, and Hairstylist Cindi Luoto.

Many members of the Class of '81 went into politics. They Are: Secretary of State Jean Wilson, Senators Robert Fuller and Martha Kodis, French Ambassador Veronica Lukaszewski, Mayor of New York City Greg Krysco, Local Selectman Russell Bowers, Democratic Party Leader Paul Puzzo. And Even President of the United States, Eric Pucillo, attended.

Many sports personalities were present also. These include Star Pitcher of the Red Sox Dennis Livingston, and Red Sox Manager Dan Strong, Bruins Starter Anthony LoRe, Track Star Karen Mahoney, Golf Pro Jim Strong, Gymnast Lisa MacMillan, Celtics Starter Ricky Shaw, Professional Skier Steven Pottle, and Marathon Runner Mike Spicer. Kristin Bowman had received many honors for her coaching of the first olympic softball team.

Reunioners attended from all over the country. The state with the most members of '81 was "home sweet home," Massachusetts. This included Frog Salesman Lisa Fraughton, McDonalds Manager David Hutchinson, Architect Bill Kennedy, Maitre D' at Anthony's Pier 7 Richard Rose, Public Speaker Kelly Norton, Hairstylists Donna O'Brien and Mary Panzer, Gossip Columnist Laurie Florence, Real Estate Brothers Diane Brothers and Kelly Arsenault, Salesman Peter Lee, Psychologists Domenic and Leigh Michie Cacciatore, Complaint Department Chairperson Mary Witham, Florist Katie Riley, Day Care Director Shawn Santoro, Sharon McCabe (owner of the telephone company, "The McCabe System"), Artists Barbara O'toole and Patti Onessimo, and Editor of the Boston Globe Jesse Parry, along with Globe Reporter Jeff Kaiser.

From the state of New York came Judge Ricky Leach, Mrs. Susan Brosseau Cerasoli, Publisher Sharon Miller, Clothes Designer Lisa Demetri and Kim Pacholski, Used Car Dealer Jim Donegan, Hypnotist Monique Currier, Nylon Entrepreneur Jeff Haynes, Izod Lacoste Manager Bev Hilton, Photographer Rosemary Yahnian, and Telephone Operator Marianne Pike.

From Georgia was Plantation Owner Mark Lopilato, and Cat Breeders Martha Ash and Karen Garriboto, Sheriff Kevin Ladd and Deputy David Harkless; and Zucchini Farmer Kim Quercia attended from the state of Montana.

Those from Maine included farmer John Rodgers, Travel Agent Vicki Rajaniemi, and Dentist Mike Rubenstein.

From Texas was former Dallas Cowboy Cheerleader Susan Hurley, Horse Racer Jenny Luke, Calf Rancher Jason Losso, Square Dance Caller Joe Prevost, and Warren McNeil, Owner of the "Woo McNute Sport Shop."

From Florida was Chris Martino: Marine Biologist, and Co-Associate of Jacques Cousteau, Pharmacists Carrie Schoolcraft and Wendy LaRochelle, Astronaut Ricky Reynolds, and Hornet Farmer Tammy Hoyt.

There were even some reunioners from other countries. Australian Sheep Farmer Sarah Hefford, African Anthropologists Lisa Young and Karen Sotiropoulous, Lord Mark and Lady Anita Zelanak Douglas of England, Nancy Pecevich, teacher of a Gothic class in Michigan; Rick Shaw, Basketball player in Japan, and Race Car Driver Nelson Murray from Switzerland.

Ray Green, David Greer, Kevin Lawton, and John Robicheau had all joined the Navy.

Free transportation to the reunion was provided by airplane pilots Mark Bunker, Robert Diguilio, and David Davidson, along with Stewardess's Gail Simmons and Dayna Kouns. The Steven MacAlpine Taxi Service and Train Engineers Ross Henderson and Mike Russo also provided transportation.

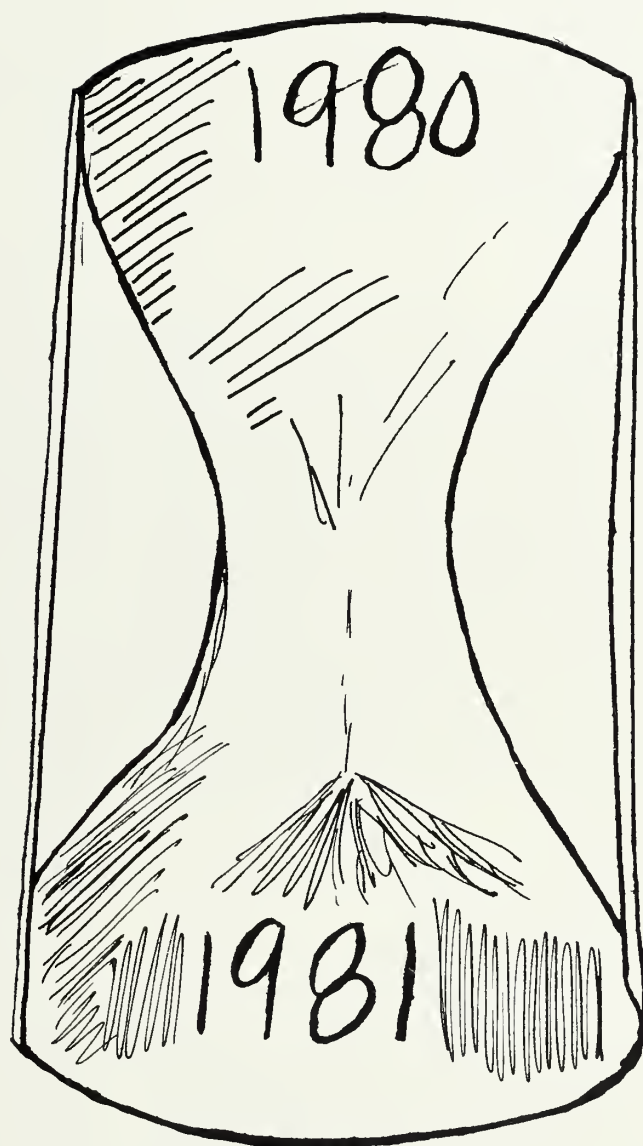

Various prizes were awarded. The class member married the longest (19 years) was Denise Jones. There was a tie between Brad and Laurie Colbert Lipert and Marco and Becky Jones Vittozzi, for having the most children (each couple had seven). The person who changed the least was Chris Cote who was still burnin' while the most changed was Rock Star Steven Knight.

Marcia Berndtson and Steven Ruskak, writers of this article, are unemployed Fortune Tellers somewhere in the South Pacific.

A fun time was had by all who attended the 20th class reunion. Plans were being made for the 50th. Who knows what we'll all be doing then??!!

SENIOR EVENTS

Too many cooks spoil the soup!

Coffee, tea, or me?

We have it, now let's split!

Oh my gosh, they're gonna eat that?

Who me? I didn't eat them all!

Look mom, No cavities!

I don't want to try it, you try it!

What's wrong with this picture?

Boy, I hate housework!

I'm having a ball!

TALENT SHOW

"I can bring home the bacon, fry it up in a pan!"

"I can fly, I can fly!"

"Don't you wish you had a body like mine?"

"I always look like this in the morning."

Our Sporting Spirit

*We're called the N.R. Hornets
We're known by land and sea
When we fight we truly clinch
The ultimate victory*

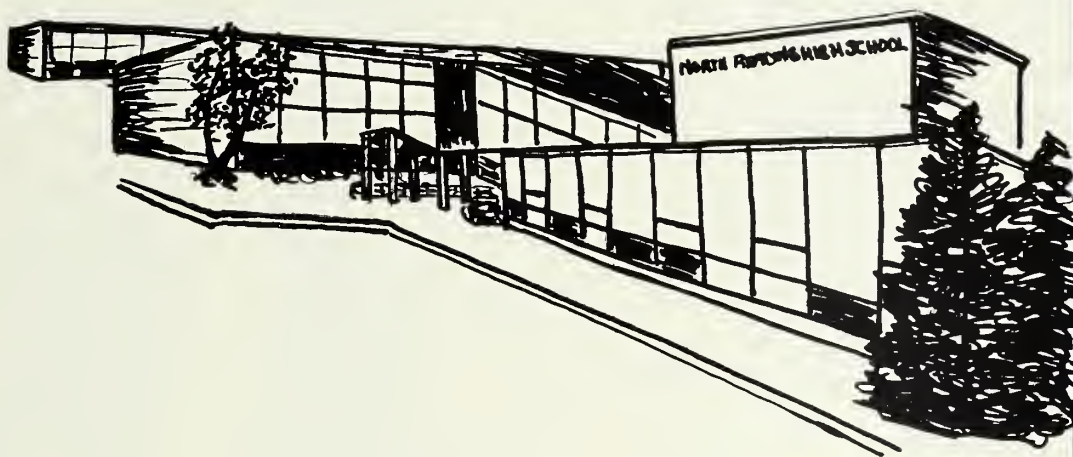

*We have the fighting spirit
No other team can beat
We have it in the winter chill
And in the early summer heat*

*The depth of skill on our teams
Is used with great precision
For when the time does come around
To make the right decision*

*And if we lacked depth
We always had young desire
To chalk up those wins
And add wood to the fire*

*The Hornet tradition
Will always be there
As we leave it with a smile
And a victory tear . . .

Looks Like We Made It

There you are, looking just the same as you did last time I touched you. And here I am close to getting tangled up inside the thought of you. Do you love him as much as I love her, and will that love be strong, when old feelings start to stir? Looks like we made it. We left each other all the way to another love. Looks like we made it, or I thought so 'til today, until you were there everywhere, and all I could taste was the love the way we made it. Love's so strange, playing hide and seek with hearts and always hurting. And we're the fools standing close enough to touch those burning memories. And if I hold you for the sake of all those times, love made us lose our minds, could I ever let you go? Oh no we made it. We left each other all the way to another love. Looks like we made it, or I thought so 'til today, until you were there, everywhere, and all I could taste is love the way we made it. Looks like we made it. Left each other all the way to another love. Looks like we made it, or I thought so 'til today, until you were there, everywhere, and all I could taste was love the way we made it. Looks like we made it, Oh Babe we made it. We've got to make it.

This is it, this is life, the one you get,
so go and have a ball.
This is it, straight ahead and rest assured,
you can't be sure at all.
So while you're here enjoy the view,
keep on doing what you do.
Hold on tight we'll muddle through,
One day at a time.
So hop on your feet,
somewhere there's music playing.
Don't you worry none, you just take it like it comes,
One day at a time!

"I dare you to."

"What the heck is that!"

"We won!"

"I wanna go home."

"I can't help it if I'm cute."

"What am I doing?"

"Don't bother me, I'm busy."

"School donuts make me high!"

"Is this how you do it?"

"I think I just sat on a tack!"

"What in the world are you looking at?"

"Put one foot in front of the other and soon you'll be through the door!"

"It won't come off!"

"Are you talking to me?"

"I hope this is the place."

"What in the world is that thing crawling on my sandwich?"

FRIENDS

Don't be dismayed at good-byes.
A farewell is necessary before you can meet again.

And meeting
again, after moments or lifetimes, is certain for those who are friends.

All we do is work.

Oh no, not me!

Practice again.

What's for lunch today?

The Fonz.

You've got to be kidding me.

Togetherness is . . .

Today we end another day
the future seems so far away but it isn't far for the days pass fast and the best times in life seem to never last.

Like spirit week and football games poster parties and funny names senior pictures, candy bars,
the spaghetti supper and beat up cars
midyear exams, the talent show, hockey games, just months to go.

It's senior week and the funs just started pizzas and yearbooks into the cafe are carted the banquet, baccalaureate, the tension starts cause graduation is here
there's tears in our hearts.

Though these days are past their treasures will last especially the ones shared with friends they're the special memories and memories don't end.

*"Good-bye" is not an ending
when you know that people care,
For miles may come between you but warm thoughts are always there...*

*"Good-bye" is not an ending
but a different start for you,
A time for making brand-new friends and seeing dreams come true...*

*"Good-bye" is not an ending,
for you'll find along life's way,
Within your heart you'll always have a part of yesterday.*

AMANDA BRADLEY

Growing Up

*Pulled up, out of the place I have known for years.
Unknowingly traveling somewhere with new surroundings.
Expecting the worst of a situation I have never experienced.
Seeming as if I was the only person who existed, the only one who mattered.
Discovering new places, faces and kind, loving friends.
Getting settled with a feeling of being, belonging.
No longer lost, for I have grown into a new place in my forever changing life.*

Belinda K. Taylor
